An attempt was made to set the wounded man out of the city, but he refused to go and insisted upon the city of Cheyenne paying him damages. It is not known what the committee will do in the matter, but in all probability Proctor will be discharged. Proctor was recently placed in charge of the police force in place of T. Jeff Carr, who made considerable notoriety for himself by shooting at tramps and roughly handling all prisoners.

AT HOOPER.

Hooper, March 9.—The first of this month was the occasion of a very enjoyable event at the home of Mr. H. W. Manning. It was his sard buthday. It was in the nature of a surprise party, and was a most thorough success. Mr. Manning's children had prepared for him a nice present in the way of a very fine office chair, which was appreciated very much by him.

After all had partaken of the good things, music, songs and recitations were very much enjoyed by all.

Many were the good wishes for his future, and all went home thinking that it was good to have been there.

The Central school hus closed, and Professor Smith showed that he knew how to manage a closing exercise. There is nothing but praise for both children and teacher. Professor Smith returned at once to his home in Nebraska.
